If you wish to contest this removal, you may seek retractions from the original reporter, or file a counter notification.

Retractions are not guaranteed, and must be submitted by the original reporter to copyright@x.com. You can request a retraction by using the reporter's contact information found in the copy of the original DMCA notice located at the bottom of this email.
If you believe the material has been removed as a result of mistake or misidentification, you may submit a counter-notification of your objection pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 512(g)(3)

Please include the following in your counter-notification:
1. Your full legal name, complete mailing address (house number, street name, state, country and zip code), telephone number, email address and X username.
2. Identification of the material that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the material appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled. (Must include specific URLs)

3. The following statement: “I swear under penalty of perjury that I have a good faith belief that the material was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the material to be removed or disabled”.
4. A proper jurisdictional consent statement in the form of:

(If your address is in the United States)
“I consent to the jurisdiction of the Federal District Court for the judicial district in which my address is located and I’ll accept service of process from the person who provided notice under 17 U.S.C. 512 (c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person.”

OR

(If your address is outside of the United States)
"I consent to jurisdiction in any judicial district in which X may be found and I’ll accept service of process from the person who provided notice under 17 U.S.C. 512 (c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person."
Please send your counter-notification to us via webform or as a new email to copyright@x.com.

We will forward a copy of your counter-notification, including the information required in item 1 above, to the complainant and Lumen. BY SENDING US A COUNTER-NOTIFICATION, YOU CONSENT TO THIS DISCLOSURE OF YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION.

Please note that repeat violations of this policy may result in suspension of your account. In order to avoid this, do not post additional material in violation of our Copyright Policy and immediately remove any material from your account for which you are not authorized to post.

Description of infringement:
> An account is publishing datamined and leaked content from "Pirate101" prior to its official release. This includes unreleased in-game assets, storyline elements, character models, and update details that have not been made public by KingsIsle Entertainment. The content was obtained through unauthorized access to the game's files and is being distributed without permission, violating copyright protections. The infringing material is visible within the posts themselves (both imagery and text) and constitutes a breach of our intellectual property rights.

512(f) Acknowledgement:
> I understand that under 17 U.S.C. § 512(f), I may be liable for any damages, including costs and attorneys' fees, if I knowingly materially misrepresent that reported material or activity is infringing.

Good Faith Belief:
> I have good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

Authority to Act:
> The information in this notification is accurate, and I state under penalty of perjury that I am authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner.
